CHICAGO, July 26.—Higher prices fere made for all grains during the forning with a break around midwere up 1 to 11/2 cents, with ost of gain lost on profit-taking. Buying was led by exporters, while the selling early was light both by the pit element and by hedges. The big export business yesterday was the largest in more than a year with most of the leading countries buy-ing and they are in the market again A large export business is being done direct by export houses, only part of which is reported. France is in the market today for soft winter wheat and Germany wants rye. Cash houses had so much sold that they are slow to offer more, and charters were made for 500,000 bushels wheat or corn at 3 cents to Buffalo. Stronger cables. with a better tone at the close, had

Corn was weak and lower early, with an advance of about 1 cent later with wheat and on shorts cov-ering. The advance brought out more offerings from the country. There is a good export demand for prompt loading. Oats are up % to about following the bulge too far.

The buying was scattered.

Packers were moderate sellers of lard and ribs and prices receded as hogs were off 25 to 35 cents, with receipts 23,000 and 26,000 for tomorrow, while Western points had 110,-000 against 67,000 last year. Pack-ing in the West for the week was ing in the West for the week 560,000 hogs against 525,000 last have been shipped, an increase of 700,000 over last year. Money was easy, call was at 4% to 5; time, 5 to 6. Exchange par.

MAN SHOT IN RAID ON GRANT STILL

Bullets Fly as Officers Surround Alleged Moonshine Camp in Mountains.

FREDERICKSBURG, Na., July 26. -The largest still ever captured in Stafford County and five men were taken in a rald six miles from Fredericksburg yesterday, when State en-forcement officers surprised alleged moonshiners, said to be operating a 50 gallon capacity still on the old Musante farm. Over 4,000 gallons of mash and fifty gallons of corn whisky were seized, according to the police. Before submitting to arrest the men gave battle and Inspector F. C. Palmer, of Richmond, shot Gray Spillin-ger, 60 years old, when the latter drew a pistol when ordered to sur-render. One ball lodged in a leg of Spillinger and another struck the arm with which he was holding his weapon. The wounded man was prought to the Mary Washington Hospital. His condition is not seri-The five men arrested are A. L. Musante, owner of the farm; Hugh Hamilton, R. V. Broyhill, Gray Spil-linger and Charlie Brooks, the latter

When the four officers reached the When the four officers reached the vicinity of the still on the Musante place they separated and approached it from four directions. The giant copper still was hidden in a dense thicket. It was surrounded by a deep swamp and was inaccessible with the exception of one roadway. The inspectors, who have made many raids all over Virginia, stated the camp was one of the most complete and well equipped outfits ever uncovered. At the still was a well arranged camp, with a large tent, floor boards nd folding cots. Eight large w with a capacity of gallons of mash was ready to

TREASURY REPORT

RESULTS IN BURST

THURSDAY MORNING-

NEW YORK, July 26 .- Overnight news of the Treasury's plan to call about $1,000,000,000 or a third of the Victory 4%s for redemption on December 15 this year, coming simultaneously with an announcement that $300,000,000 in four-year 14 per cent notes would be offered day in Victorys. Old Victory 4%s between August 1 and December 15, it was said, can be exchanged at their face value for the new four-year notes. Wall Street traders predicted a good market for the new notes and bought the Victory 4%s today because of the right which they carry up to a certain amount to be converted into the amount to be converted into the forthcoming Treasury obligations. It was the rumor that only in this manner could the four-year securities be had, since the full quota might well be taken before

Victory 4%s Better. On this news the Victory 4%s were able to improve their position by 18 cents on the $100 piece, when selling at the day's best figure of 100.76, but even then were 24 cents below the year's highest level. Well over $5.000,000 of these bonds exchanged hands through the medium of the New York Stock Ex-change, and that of course takes no account of the big volume dealt in over the counters, and known as "outside" buying, which never appears on the ticker tape.
